

This is a profiled steel closure designed to match the IBR roofing profile at the narrow flute. It is fitted at the gutter end of the roof to the underside of the sheet. It prevents leaves, birds and vermin from getting under the roof.

It is fitted between the roof sheet and the purlin.