

This material is galvanised to prevent corrosion.

Bargeboard

This flashing measures 230mm x 230mm and is fitted at the gable end of the roof. It closes the roof from the elements and fits from the roof onto the bargeboard.

Counter flashing

This flashing seals the roof and is fitted onto the parapet wall and over the headwall or sidewall flashing.

Headwall flashing

This flashing measures 230mm x 75mm and is fitted at the headwall. It closes the roof from the elements and fits from the roof onto the wall.

Internal corner

This flashing is fitted vertically where the building changes its form by ninety degrees. It is fitted onto the exterior cladding and seals the opening create by the change in form of the building. It measures 230mm x 230mm.

Ridge cap

This flashing is fitted at the roof ridge line to seal the two sides of a pitched roof. This is a plain ridge measuring 230mm x 230mm.

Roll top ridge

This flashing is fitted at the roof line to seal the two sides of a pitched roof. This is a roll top ridge measuring 230mm x 230mm.

Sidewall

This flashing measures 230mm x 75mm and is fitted at the sidewall. It closes the roof from the elements and fits from the roof onto the wall.